

Dear Pope Francis:

How are you? Fine I hope. (I didn't know if you had a number yet, so this letter is meant for the one who is still alive.) Anyway, perhaps you can help us Americans with a little problem. I know that you recently had to go through an election, and I am sure that you had to present a birth certificate, and some Catholic registration papers, and then swear that you were eligible to be Pope. That is just common sense, because the last thing the Catholics would ever want to do is elect a Southern Baptist, or maybe one of those snake handling people, to be God's representative here on Earth. My goodness, it is hard enough to get people to church as it is, and if you were to bring in a bunch of rattlesnakes then things would go from bad to worse. Plus, I hear Mexicans are just scared to death of snakes and wham, there would go half of your congregation scattering out of doors and windows and jumping off of steeples like it was an ICE raid or something.

But, here in the United States, we elected a President who nobody knows for sure where he is from, and if he is even eligible to be President. TWICE! One of our country's chief law enforcement agencies, The Maricopa County Sheriff's Office Cold Case Posse, has determined that President Obama's birth certificate is a FORGERY! Which is probably one of those Mortal Sins I have heard that you Catholics have. You know, the really bad ones, not the venereal ones. But everybody is just ignoring them. The Posse, that is. Not the sins. Can you believe that? Just ignoring a FORGERY???

Sooo, could you help us with this??? Or maybe even get God himself to intervene? From what I understand, there are a lot of Catholics on the Supreme Court, and in elected offices. Maybe you could threaten to excommunicate them if they don't get on the stick? Plus, the Vice-President, Joe Biden, is a Catholic and if we could ever get Obama impeached, then you Catholics would get to have another President! Wouldn't that be great!

Whatever you, or God, could do would be greatly appreciated. Thanking you in advance!

Sharon Rondeau, Editor
The Post and Email

The Post and Email: Where, if you can't prove it didn't happen. . . it's NEWS!